INTRODUCTION

We are pleased to invite you to the next British Cochlear Implant Group Annual Meeting on 17th – 18th May 2018 in Belfast. Belfast is a city full of culture and history, which has evolved into one of the top UK short break destinations.

We are proud to be hosting the conference in the Belfast Waterfront, which is a new, purpose built facility on the banks of the River Lagan in the heart of the city.

The gala dinner will be held in Titanic Belfast, the award winning maritime heritage museum. We would be delighted to offer delegates a tour of this world famous site, followed by a drinks reception, dinner and Ceili dancing.

The conference is entitled 'Making Waves – A Change to the Status Quo' and we would welcome the submission of abstracts from all centres along this theme.

We look forward to reviewing current practice, challenging boundaries and looking at innovations in cochlear implantation. We are delighted to have invited world-renowned keynote speakers who will no doubt inspire our clinical practice.
